Suede Bags, $1

Flat effects; long cord handle, vith or without fringe; all

Social and Personal

Get Everything Needed for Comfortable Traveling at ROUNTREE'S 193 E. BROAD ST TREE

> HAVE YOU SEEN THE

New Method Gas Ranges

Pettit & Co.'s?

Sauers III

halo of childlike imagination invests this normal characterization of wondering childhood with a charm that endears her no less to the "grown ups," which sees in this wonderland a reflection of its own possibly long-forgotten childhood. "Guruser and cur'user," ejaculates the wide-eyed Alice as wonder upon wonder, change upon change unfolds before her, who has not had a like experience with has not had a like experience with dreams, nay, even with what we call reality. In this classic story is found an appeal to the sypathies of childhood, to one's sense of humor, decidedly, and to the intellect of broad culture as well as childlish minds and hearts.

hearts.

It has been said that no play since "Peter Pan" has made so universal an appeal. The character dances, the attractive music and the personnel of the caste complete the charm of this unique production, and all of the society people in town will be there. Betwen the acts, the artist-proof-posters by well known litchmond artists, will be auctioned by Henry Hotchking.

Personal

Mish LOHA CRUMP, who will be there complete the partial product of the product of the quested to attend this meeting without further notice.

O'Connor-Byrne.
On Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, in St. Peter's Cathedral, was celebrated the marriage of Miss. Louise Irene Byrne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M.
Byrne, and John W. O'Connor, of Forest Hill. The ceremony was performed by Rov. Father Bowler, assisted by flev. Father Coleman, of South Richmond. The bride wore a going-away gown of blue cheviot with a picture hat to match and carried a bouquet of Bride roses. David F. O'Neil, John Byrne, Edward Kain and Leo Wade
were ushers,
After an extended Northern trip that includes visits to New York, Baltimore and Washington, Mr. and Mrs.
O'Connor will be at home at Fortythird Street and Spring Hill Avenue, Forest Hill, after December 16.
Wins Prize.
At the Amelia Fair, beld at Amolia on November 18, Miss Frances Truehart, a pupil in the Morven School, was awarded the first prize for making the best cooking apron exhibited. The exhibit on that day was made by the pupils of Amelia county.

In and Out of Town.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Scott and Butord Scott are attending the automobile races in Atlanta.

Mrs. Jamos B. Taylor and her daugh-

Mrs. James B. Taylor and her daugh-

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

SWEATER COATS For Men.

$1.50 Half Wool ones, heavy ribbed, for $1.25. Good Wearing Heavy Cot-

Good Wool ones, worth

ter, Miss Mattie Taylor, have gone to Raleigh, N. C., to attend the marriage of the former's niece, Miss Pearl Heck

Miss Lucy Duke and Miss Coleman have returned to Richmond, after at-tending the Teachers' State Associa-tion, held in Norfolk.

Roland Lassiter, who has been very ill with typhoid fover in Yale in-firmary at New Haven, has been brought home.

Miss Margaret Glass Williams, of Danville, who has been the guest of Miss Louise A. Ryan, at $29 North Harrison Street, left yesterday for Nor-folk.

Jefferson D. Norris, who has been in Richmond for several days this week, will return to Baltimore to-day. Dr. Charles W. Kent, of the University of Virginia, has been the guest of friends here this week.

Miss Elizabeth Barkman, of Staunton, is spending a week in Richmond visiting friends.

Parrish Trant, of Norfolk, is in town for several days as the guest of friends.

Barnes-Haskins.

Harnes—Haskins.

[Special to The Times-Manatch.]

Meherrin, Va., November 20.—One of the prettiest marriages of the season was solemnized in the Presbyterian Church here yesterday. The contracting parties were Miss Mattle Blanche Haskins and Charles Smithson Barnes, of Keysville. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ruth Haskins, of Lynchburg, as maid of honor, and the groom was attended by Bates Hanner, of Keysville, as groomsman. Revs. Hugh Henry, of Briery, and W. B. Daughtry, of Meherrin, performed the ceremony. H. W.
Wall was master of ceremonles.
The bride is the daughter of Mrs.
Landon Haskins, and the groom is a son of W. H. Barnes, of Keysville. The bride and groom left on the 1 o'clock southbound Southern train for a tour of several points in Florida, and will be gone about ten days.

Bensley-Nelster.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Lynchburg, Va., November 36.—A telegram from Washington early this afternoon announced the marriage in that city, at 11:30 oclock to-day of Charles H. Beasley, Jr., and Miss Mazie
Neister, daughter of Mrs. A. F. Neister.

ter.
The marriage took place at Calvary Baptist Church, Washington, and was performed by Rev. S. H. Green D. D.

Will Carry to Consummation Extensive Improvements and Additions.

Norfolk. Va., November 30.—The Norfolk County Water Company today put to record in Princess Anne county a $2,000,900 mortgage, securing a 5 per cent. thirty-year bond issue for like amount. The mortgage covers all the properties of the Norfolk County Water Company in Princess Anne and Norfolk Counties, as well as in Norfolk city. It retires a present bond issue of $650,000, and is given for the purpose of carrying to consummation extensive improvements and additions. The mortgage is executed to the Columbia Avenue Trust Company, of Philadelphia, as trustee, and is signed by Joseph S. Keen, of Philadelphia, as president of the Norfolk County Water Company, and by H. Bayard Hodge, of Philadelphia, its secretary. H. Bayara Hodge, of Philadelphia, its

The tax to the State of Virginia on the mortgage was $2,000.

SENATOR PROMISES SUPPORT

Tells Hebrew Delegation He Payors Abrogation of Trenty, Baitimore, Md., November 30.—A del-egation of prominent Hebrews of this city called upon United States Senator John Waiter Smith and quested the Senator to support quested the Senator to support the resolution now pending in the Federal Senate calling for the abrogation of the treaty with Russle of 1822 claiming that this action is justified by the discrimination of the Russlan government against Jewish oltizens of the United States.

Senator Smith assured his visitors of his support of the proposed action, which he said he regarded as reasonable and proper.

ALLEGED NEGRO MURDERER CAPTURED IN NEW YORK

CAPTURED IN NEW YORK

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Danville, Va., November 30.—Nows has been received by local police authorities of the capture in Middletown, N. Y., of a negro answering the description of Jesse Watkins. colored, who killed W. D. Nash, a white man, at Gatewood. a few miles from here. The crime was committed in August, 1919, and Watkins effected an escape. Plain Clotheaman Hall received information a few days ago that Watkins was in Middletown. He informed the chief of police there, and the latter had no difficulty in capturing this soft white man acquainted with Watkins white man acquainted with Watkins white man acquainted with Watkins of the latter had no difficulty in capturing this soft white man acquainted with Watkins of the latter had no difficulty in capturing this soft white man acquainted with Watkins with the promoted with the beautiful dentify the negro, who will then be brought back here to stand trial.

BASEBALL PLAYER SHOT AND KILLED ACCIDENTALLY

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Ispecial to The Times Dispatch.] Bristol, Var. November 23.—A telegram to his sister, Miss Kate Fitts, a teacher in the Bristol schools, announced the death of her brother, A. McCoy Pitts, at Dimerest. Ga., to-day. He was shot and kills by accident.
Pitts, who was twenty-two years old, was a son of F. M. Pitts, of Pomerest, He was a member of the Johnson Giv, Tenn., baseball team, of the Appalachian League, end was a favorite of the team. He had a marrow escape from death during the baseball season, being struck in the head by a torrific incurve pitched by Stuitz, of the Bristol team.

Gampbell—Watson.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Onancock, Va., November 30.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Watson was the scene of a pretty marriage last evening when their daughter. Miss Sue C. Watson, became the bride of Claude L. Campbell, Rev. R. F. Waterfield, of Richmond, being the officiating dergyman. Raiph Waterfield, of Cape Charles, was best man. The bride was given away by her brother. Corbin F. Watson, Miss Susie Kelley played the wedding march. After the ceremony a reception was held, at which were present a number of friends and relatives.

BOTH MEET DEATH ON THANKSGIVING

Her Husband After Twelve Years.

REACH SAME AGE

Peculiar Coincidences Noted in Passing of Petersburg

One Spoon of GOOD LUCK

ONE spoonful of nary Baking Powder Only one teaspoonful to a quart of flour. Its purity is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act, June 30, 1906, Serial No. 13026.

The Southern Manufacturing Company,

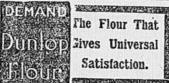

Magnificent showings of Fine

GYMNASIUM SHOES ... All Sizes

Cuff Pins

All Gold, $1.50 Pair. These are not merely gold top. Plain and engraved. All finishes and designs

Smith & Webster, Jewelers, 612 East Main Street. DATRICIAN TAN CALF LACE $3.50 and $4.

Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder

Mrs. Harriet D. Morris Follows Used by people of refine- It Is Recommended by Referee ment in every part of the world where the use of the tooth-brush is known, for Almost Half a Century.

neral will be from the residence to-morrow, and the burlal will be in Hoi-lywood, Richmond,

Times-Dispatch Bureau,
5 Bollingbrock Street (Phone 1485),
Petersburg, V.A., November 30, Mrs. Harriet D. Morris, widow of Thomas Morris, died this morning at her residence, on North Market Street, aged seventy-three years. She was widely known in the community and esteemed for her noble womanly traits and Christian devotion. A singular coincidence in connection with her death is that she passed away on the twelfth anniversary of the death of her husband; that both died on Thanksgiving Day, and that each was seventy-three years old at the time of death. Mrs. Morris is survived by two daughters, Misses Fannic and Lula
Morris, of this city, and one son, John E. Morris, of Dallas, Texas. The fumorris, of Dallas, Texas. The fugreat surprise, But the situation was and discovered the consequence of the consequence and discovered the consequence with supplies for the pantry and they invaded the good doctor's home with but little ceremony, filling the first floor of the house and piling the first floor of the house and the visitors were not only welcomed, but thanked.
The Rev. W. H. Atwill, pasior of
the recipicate of a surprise visit
from a large number of members of
his congregation last night, following
the recipicate of a surprise visit
from a large number of members of
his congregation last night, following
the midweck service at the church,
and the visit was not without purpose,
for, remembering that this was Tranksgiving Day, the visitors came
the midweck service at the church,
and the visit was not without purpose,
for, remembering that this was Tranksgiving Day, the visitors came
the midweck service at the church,
from a large number of members of
his congregation last night, following
the midweck service at the church,
from a large number of members of
his congregation last night, following
the midweck service at the church,
from a large number of members of his congregation last night, Personal Intelligence.

Personal Intelligence.

Mr. and Mrs. Charleg H. Marshall have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Martha May, to W. S. Liggon, of this city. The wedding will be at the home of the bride's parents, on Franklin Street, on Tuesday, December 5.

Mies Josephine Hawkins and Eugene Bowman, both of Ettrick, in Chesterfield county, left this morning for Halifax, N. C., to be married.

James A. Young, of Disputanta, announces the marriage of his daughter, Marjorle, to Benjamin W. McGee, of the same place. The marriage took place in Washington on Tuesday, November 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald McRae are entertaining a number of friends from entertaining a number of friends from Pennsylvania at a house party at their country home in Brunswick county. country home in Brunswick country. Frank Wagner, a well-known Hall-fax Street merchant, met with a puluful accident yesterday afternoon while hunting in Prince George county. In alighting from his buggy, Mr. Wagner slipped and fell, badly dislocating one of his elbows. He had the presence of mind, in falling, to throw his gun aside.

aside.

The funeral of the late E. D. Byller will take place from High Street M. E. Church Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. It will be attended by Appomattox Commandery, Knights Templar: Powhatan Tribe of Red Men. Phoenix Camp. Woodmen of the World; the Benevolent Mechanic Association, and Petersburg Lodge of Elks, of all of which he was a member.

The Rev. George H. Spooner, the new pastor of Market Street M. E. Church, arrived in the city last evening from rrived in the city last evening from Portsmouth, and was escorted by the board of stewards to the parsonage, which had been put in readiness for him. He will occupy his pulpit on Matter Deferred.

At its meeting this week the Gas and Light Committee of the Council further considered the matter of making a "white way" of Sycamore and Bollingbrook Streets, but without taling any action, deferred making report until a future meeting. The committee has had estimats of the cost of lighting the streets from both the gas company and the Virginia Railway and Power Company, but before finally deciding the matter, desires to be further informed as to public sentiment on the proposition.

Thankagiving Observance.

Thankagiving Day was well observed here. Business was generally suspended, and everybody enjoyed a holiday. Services at the churches were largely attended and the thanks offering were liberal. Hundreds of Petersburg people went to Richmond to witness the football game, and scores of others went a hunting.

of others went a hunting.

Appointment Recommended.

Postmaster Stith Bolling has forwarded to the department at Washington his recommendation for the appointment of Thomas B. Birchett, of Prince George county, as a substitute clerk in the post-office. The business of the office has so increased as to necessitate additional elerical force.

Papers Merged. of others went a hunting,

Papers Merged.

Announcement is made in the Evening Record this afternoon that it has been merged with the Index-Appeal, and that with to-day's Issue it will cease to appear. In making the announcement the editor, Walter Edward Harris, states that this step has been under consideration for some time. The difficulties attending the publication of two papers from the same office are many, and vexations incident thereto far outwelgh considerations on the other side. The entire service of the office and staff will be concentrated on the Index-Appeal.

New James River Service.

The first boat of the new James River line petween Norfolk and Petersburg, of which G. S. Briggs, of Norfolk, is president, will arrive here to-morrow evening, and leave for Norfolk with freight on Saturday morning. The name of the steamer is Martha A. Dickerman, and is said to be well adapted to the traffic. It will stop at all the landings between the two cities. The line is warmly indorsed by the Petersburg Chamber of Commerce and local merchants. Announcement is made in the Even Commerce and local merchants.

Workman's Long Fall.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Predericksburg, Va., Nevember 20.—11 L.
Winkler, of Stafford county, one of the carpenters employed on the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, while at work on the bridge spanning Potomac Run, near this city, last evening fell to the ground, a considerable distance, and was severely injured, one of his legs being broken, Dr. Doggett and Dr. Payne, of this city, were summoned and rendered medical attention, being taken over on a freight train.

INCENSED BY REPROOF, NEGRO COMMITS MURDER

NEGRO COMMITS MURDER

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

South Boston, Va., November 32.—John Williamson shot and killed Ellis Watkins
at this piace about 4 o'clock this afternoon.
Both are colored, about thirty years of age,
and were employed in the tobacco stemmery of the Imperial Tobacco Company.
The shooting took place in the basement of that company's factory. Watkins was foreman, and had been in the employ of the company for some time. He bore a good reputation. Williamson came here from Danville, and had been in the employ of the company about two weeks.

Watkins roproached Williamson about incented the work, and the latter becoming incensed, draw his revolver and shot his victim, killing him instantly.
Williamson was captured early to-night
by Hubert Moorefield on upper Main Street.

UPTON SINLCAIR

Who Has Taken Testimony.

New York, November 27.—Upton Sinclair, the author and socialist, will get his divorce from his wife, Meta F. Sinclair, if the court testimony, containing interesting quality life at Arden, the summer camp of the lear colony, while Harry Kenn, the least poot and corespondent in the case, as a dweller there with other literary pile. Ellen Barrows, stenographer for Sinclair, tiffied that Kemp was in company with a Sinclair almost all the time he was at don, and they frequently took long walks either. Once, she said, Mrs. Sinciair retried to her of Kemp: "He makes me whappy; he has the most beautiful soul wer knew;"

liss Barrows, in describing the living atters of the said of ery happy; he has the most beautiful soulever knew."

Miss Barrows, in describing the living marters of the Ardea camp, said that Mrs.
sinclaid lived in the "little house." about it city block distant, but when Kemp came to Arden they changed abodes, and Kemp atched lived in the "little house."

Yisit sie ten near the "little house."

Yisit sie ten near the "little house."

Sinclair himself testified that he had introduced Kemp to his wife three years ago in Battle Creek, Mich. The author said
Kemp had manifessed au interest in Mrs.
Sinclair, but later when they came East he said that Kemp had given assurances that his friendship for Mrs. Sinclair was purely platonic.

latonic.
It appeared by the report that Mrs. Sin-lair's attorney moved to dismiss the suit a the ground that Sinciair had condoned its wife's actions. In denying the motion, he referee said:

Falls and Breaks Her Leg.

[Special to The Times-Leppatch.]

Amelia. Va., November 26—At her home.

Seima, in this county, Mrs. Joseph W. Southall was painfully hurt a few days ago. As she was going down the stairway she slipped and fell, breaking her right leg. While she has suffered a great deal and is yet confined to her bed, Mrs. Southall is getting a long as well as could be expected, and the broken limb having been set, it is believed that she will not loase the use of it.

now. It is not too soon.

Bracelets for Christmas Gifts

Will be more popular this sea-son than ever before.

We have an exquisite variety of patterns and sizes—so that you may choose here to the best advantage.

GOLD BRACELETS, $5.00 to $60.00. GOLD FILLED BRACELETS, $1.50 to $10.00.

Schwarzschild Bros. Richmond's Leading Jewelers, Second and Broad Sts.

Lynchburg, Va., November 30 .- Lewis recently a member of a firm of detectives, is in jail at Covington awaiting removal to Staunton, where he will be detained pending an investigation against him. Investigation here on the part of relatives of the man's sec-ond wife caused the arrest to become public.

Mrs. Clark No. 1, a trained nurse, is a resident of Lynchburg. She appearen

rs attorner moved the ground that Sinciair had comwife's action. In denying the motion, referce said;
It is true that the husband is regarded the protector of his wife, but I hardly ink the most ordent advocate of the fealic side of the most should devote his whole into the protector of his wife. The alic the husband should devote his whole
into the protector of his wife. The mily weapon that he is permitted to use in this enlightened has been actually as moral sussion. In weapon of but little effect in these days of barometric depression of the marking other thand occasioned by these so-called affinity storms."

The second wife was Miss whom he was living at the time of his arrest in Clifton Forge, with whom he was living at the time of
ond marriage took place in Staunton
last August, and it is for that reason that Clark is to be taken there for trial.

pepsia, indigestion and kidney troubles. "Ask your drugglet about it"-He knows

Prevents dys-

Orders For Engraved Work!!

Intended for the holidays should be placed now. Our samples of Calling Cards, Monogram Stationery and designs for Christmas Cards are all ready and await your inspection. Avoid the inevitable rush and the consequences, and order

EVERETT WADDEY 1105 East Main St.

Elegant Wedding Gifts The Nowlan Company,

921 East Main Street,

Are Headquarters for Elegant Gifts of Fine Gold and Sterling Silver, and their selection for this season comprises many beau tiful articles, such as will not be found in other stocks, at prices more reasonable than ever before.

CLEANING, DYEING & PRESSING

WE USE ONLY THE BEST MATERIALS; WE USE ONLY THE BEST METHODS; WE USE ONLY THE BEST MACHINERY;

WE EMPLOY ONLY THE MOST SKILLED WORKMEN. This is why we are the leaders. Mrs. A. J. Pyle

315 North Fifth Street, - - - -Phones: Mad. 2522 and Mon. 3397.

C. P. Lathrop & Co.